ARTICLE I
Disorderly Conduct
[Adopted 8-10-1970 by Ord. No. 266]

§ 141-1. Prohibited acts.

It shall be unlawful for any person to commit or cause to be committed any act or acts of disorderly conduct within the Borough of Dallastown, York County, Pennsylvania.

§ 141-2. Disorderly conduct defined.

The following acts are defined and declared to be disorderly conduct in violation of this article:

- A. Any person who shall, in any street, house, building, park, alley or any other place of whatsoever kind in the borough, create, make or engage in any riot, disturbance or disorderly assembly, or any person in said borough who shall make, in any manner whatsoever, any unusual noises or sounds which may disturb and annoy any other person.
- B. Whoever willfully makes or causes to be made any loud, boisterous and unseemly noise or disturbance to the annoyance to the peaceable residents of the borough, whereby the public peace is broken or disturbed or the traveling public is annoyed.
- C. Appearing in a drunken or intoxicated condition in or on any public street, alley, park or public building.
- D. Prowling or loitering about the property of other persons or peering or peeping into any house or other structure without the consent of the owner.
- E. Loitering or being found in any place in which acts of prostitution or lewdness are solicited, practiced or encouraged.

- F. Inveigling or enticing of any female person by a male person to accompany him in a vehicle in the borough.
- G. The uttering of profane, opprobrious, scandalous, obscene or indecent language to any person.
- H. Engaging in fighting or brawling in or on any public street, alley, park, public building or other place or building to which the public has access.
- I. Wantonly or maliciously throwing or casting stones or other objects in any public street, park or alley within the borough.
- J. To shoot or discharge any firearm or other deadly weapon in or on any public street, alley, park or building within the borough or within 300 yards of any occupied dwelling house or residence.

§ 141-3. Violations and penalties.¹

Any person violating any of the terms or provisions of this article shall, upon conviction thereof, be punishable by a fine of not more than $600, plus costs of prosecution, and in default of payment of such fine and costs by imprisonment for not more than 30 days.
